Love is in the Air

Not sure where to spend the honeymoon of your dreams? Here's a little travel inspiration for all types from Kate Springer.

Nature Lovers

Has Africa always been on your bucket list? If an extra-special safari sounds like the perfect honeymoon to you, then look into the custom itineraries from Asia to Africa, a luxury safari provider. You could spend a few nights in Cape Town—staying at top-notch La Residence and exploring the South African vineyards—before flying to Botswana, where you'll relax at Little Mombo Camp on Chief's Island. From there, you could head to the Vumbura Plains and enjoy boat excursions and close-up encounters with lions, leopards and their prey. 16 Days. $217,007 per person, includes all but flights. Contact Asia to Africa, www.atoasafaris.com, for more information.

GETTING THERE: FLIGHTS TO CAPE TOWN COST AROUND $11,718 ON SOUTH AFRICAN AIRLINES.

Adventurous Types

Want an off-the-beaten track experience that you won't find in guidebooks? About Asia Travel, a Cambodia travel specialist, can help with that. The team's carefully researched and bespoke itineraries will take you all over Siem Reap—and beyond—without the crowds. Check out the 10-day honeymoon itinerary, for instance, which will take you from Siem Reap to Phnom Penh to the private island of Song Saa. Along the way, expect a few fascinating temple tours, a visit to Tonle Sap Lake, an Angkor Wat sunrise exploration, sunset drinks and an insider's look into the rural landscapes. And once you get to Song Saa? Just relax. 10 Days. From $36,054 per person. Meals and luxury accommodation included. Visit www.aboutasiatravel.com for more information.

GETTING THERE: NONSTOP FLIGHTS ON DRAGONAIR FROM $6,045.

Diehard Romantics

For a honeymoon that's all your own, check out The Experience Company. Whether you're a fine wine aficionado or you simply love a good meal, these bespoke travel coordinators can whip up the itinerary of a lifetime. Everything is custom-coordinated, but say you want to waltz through Europe for a week? Check out the "Ace of Hearts" experience, a seven-day tour through Italy and Greece, stopping in romantic Verona, the mountains of Veneto and the canals of Venice before moving onto historic Santorini, where artisanal wines, candlelit dinners and sunrise breakfast rides await. Seven days. From $99,994 per couple. All inclusive. Visit www.theexco.com for more information.

GETTING THERE: FLIGHTS ON LUFTHANSA FROM $16,500.
